Dining-room girls wanted at Steffens' Hotel in Pilot Knob.

For RENT.—A desirable private residence in Ironton. Apply to J. N. Bishop.

The finest lunch of the season was set out at Richter's saloon, in Pilot Knob last Monday.

Next to circus lemonade the hardest thing to swallow is a hunter's yarn, and just now the air is full of 'em.

The streets of Ironton are looking quite deserted. A great many of our citizens have gone to the St. Louis Fair.

WANTED.—A good girl for general housework—one who knows how to cook. Apply to Mrs. F. Seville, Ironton, Mo.

Passenger train No. 3 has been several hours late for the past week or ten days. Misconnections in Texas is said to be the cause.

FOR SALE.—A 2-year-old Pure Cotswold Buck, for $15—just half the original cost. L. D. CARLE, Belleview, Mo.

Farmers, who awhile back were growing at the dry weather, are, since last week's rains, growing at the wet, as is usually the case with them.

Work on the Presbyterian church tower has been resumed, and it will henceforth be pushed rapidly to completion. Louis Miller, Esq., is boss of the job.

Among the premiums awarded at the late Farmington Fair, we note one to Miss Rene Zwart of this place, under the head of "textile fabrics." The articles were a washstand toilet set.

Prof. Isham, of De Soto, has been employed to serve as principal of the Ironton Public Schools for the coming term. From what we have heard of Bro. Isham, he is a good man for the position, and we wish him success.

We acknowledge, with thanks, the present of a basket of mighty fine sweet potatoes, at the hands of Thomas Johnson, Esq. He never forgets the Register, and the poorer the season, the more liberal his offerings. May he live long and prosper.

About seventy-five citizens of the Valley are now in St. Louis, attending the Fair. Fifty-one boarded the train here Tuesday morning. The passenger train bound north Monday consisted of seven coaches, mail and baggage cars, while Tuesday's train had eleven coaches. And there was scarcely standing-room, even then.

There is said to be a pack of some fifty wild hogs on Valley mountain—about three miles southwest of town. We have many mighty Nimrods in this section, and they should turn their attention to the demolition of these animals of the "hazel-splitting" tribe, instead of killing game out of season and on other people's land.

DIED.—On Sept. 25, 1881, near Edge Hill, Mrs. LUCY LATHAM, wife of Houston Latham, of consumption of the bowels—aged 23 years.
On Sept. 25, near Belleview, Miss MAHALA KIRKPATRICK, of old age—aged 65 years.
On Sept. 23, at Pilot Knob, GEORGE THOMAS FRANKLIN PORTER, son of Henry and Amanda Porter, of summer complaint—aged 2 years.

Our young friend, L. D. Carle, of Belleview, "scorped" 'em over at the Farmington Fair. Out of eight premiums on Sheep he took five, "against the world." Mr. C. naturally feels proud over his success, as he has good reason to. He has for years devoted considerable attention to sheep-breeding and raising; and, the above shows, with taste and good judgment.

Last Monday evening a wagon-full of school-girls—from the College—was unceremoniously unloaded at the lower end of town. "Nob" had gotten out to assist them to the ground and the girls all had raised to their feet, when the horse suddenly started forward. Result, about half a dozen young ladies went out over the back end of the wagon, happily without injury, and scooted off homewards through a friendly alley which lay convenient to the mishap.

We had quite a lively little matinee to entertain a full day, last Sunday. Bro. Hotsen had left his horse standing—harnessed in a spring wagon, in which sat his little boy—unhitched before his door, and two dogs happened to meet under unfavorable circumstances near the horse, concluded to "fight it out," and proceeded to do so. The horse became frightened, and, after kicking awhile, started off at a brisk gallop. Damage—partly broken wagon and harness, and the ending of the dog-fight.

Poplar Bluff has a habit of sending her indigent poor to this county for care and support. As one of the instances named, we mention a family of four—a sick man and starving wife and children—now at the depot. They say the people of the Bluff gave them just enough money to bring them this far—merely to get rid of them, of course. Such action is outrageous, and we suggest our authorities ship these indigents back at once. Iron county takes care of her poor; let Butler do the same—for very shame, if not from principle.

CITY TAX-PAYERS—Will please not forget that now is the accepted time: the books are long since made out; the bills remain unliquidated; they must be paid; and the sooner the better for all concerned. In other words, the Collector is on the warpath, and he'll have your scalps unless you flee the wrath to come. The time is limited, but the burden is not heavy if prompt payment be made; but delay in this matter will greatly enhance the general average of your deficit. Come forward and square up, if you wish to save costs, penalties, and trouble.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Haller has returned from St. Louis.
Miss Hattie Edgar last week returned from a visit to Iowa.
Clark Patton left to attend medical school at Louisville, Ky., last Monday.
J. Birch, of St. Francis, Co., has bought property in Ironton, and will be here to stay this week.

Miss Sophia Seitz, of Middlebrook, and her friend Miss Clara Bennett, were in Ironton on a visit, last week.
Mr. Joseph C. Moore, of Charleston, Mo., will soon be a resident of the valley. People will live where health is sure.

P. Mulcahey, Esq., contractor building our new schoolhouse, was in town yesterday. He is a genial gentleman and master of his vocation.

Said the Raven to the Swallow: "Your beauty is but for the summer, but mine will stand many winters; evincing the moral, 'Durability is better than show.'" [Who among the readers of this paper cannot call to mind many similar instances. Although beauty is evanescent, yet we call your mind to two stylish and beautiful young ladies, both of whom have spells of sickness peculiar to their sex. One obstinately refuses to use proper remedies for the restoration of health. She soon droops and fades away. The other heeds advice, procures Dr. Dromgool's ENGLISH FEMALE BITTERS and is restored to health and remains beautiful many years.]

To Justices of the Peace Iron county, Missouri.

The County Court, at its Sept. term, 1881, made an order requiring all Justices of Peace of Iron county to make out a certified list of all fines imposed by them, and in whose hands the same were placed for collection, from Dec. 1st, 1880, to Dec. 1st, 1881, and file the same upon the County Clerk at the December term of the County court.

G. B. NALL, Clerk.

Chewing Gum.

Ed. Register—Some of the Ironton girls must have made a practice of the awful habit of chewing wax, and seem to be somewhat filled at the Charleston Courier's public announcement of the fact. One of them has 'pitched into' the Bluff Citizen for having made the Courier say that they all chewed wax. She says:

If we consider it conducive to our mental or physical welfare to chew wax, we would certainly indulge, with the consciousness that our 'chaws' were much more profitably employed upon wax than upon neighbors' characters. What a blessing for the town did every one of the girls and old ladies chew wax and attend to their business! We for one would be quite willing to contribute right liberally to a fund for the importation of a car-load of wax, did it but keep the 'chaws' of our (we wouldn't 'our' them, but there's too many of 'em to deny) gossip-mongers busy on the wax.

Set Back 42 Years.

I was troubled for many years with Kidney Complaint, Gravel, &c.; my blood became thin; I was dull and inactive; could hardly crawl about; was an old, worn out man all over; could get nothing to help me until I got Hops Bitters and now I am a boy again. My blood and kidney are all right and I am active as a man of 30, although I am 72 and I have no doubt it will do as well for others of my age. It is worth a trial.—Father.
